

QPR

QPR ACCREDITATION GET THE QUALITY MARK

---

RANZ members are now eligible to get the Qualified Professional Researcher (QPR) accreditation. 3+ years industry experience and a practical research assignment.

---

1

Join the QPR scheme as an international member for $220<sub>NZD</sub>.

2

Meet the eligibility requirements and submit the QPR application and self-assessment form along with a current resume. Researchers on both client and agency side are invited to participate.

3

Once approved to undertake the QPR assessment complete a practical research assignment in response to a prepared research brief within 14 days. Submit the brief along with a signed Statutory Declaration stating that you did not consult another person when completing the practical assignment.

4

Pass the research practical assignment and be awarded QPR accreditation. Receive the QPR mark (see below) and a PDF QPR certificate.

5

To maintain your accreditation, keep learning and developing professionally, and submit a yearly QPR diary outlining your professional development activities over the previous 12 months. Annual QPR renewal fee is $100<sub>NZD</sub>

To undertake the QPR assessment contact the QPR Manager, Julie Regan, at julie.regan@amsrs.com.au